To All Who Use a Pen.

A GOOD GOLD PEN Is always ready and reliable, and, if adapted to the hand, makes writing a pleasure, not a task. The beginner makes more rapid progress with a Gold Pen than with any other, because the same pressure always produces the same result; and the proficient is better satisfied with his labor, because of the uniformity of his writing, and the ease by which it is preduced.

IN MAKING NEW PENS. the subscriber uses no solder. The gold at the point is brought to a state of fusion, when the point is brought to a state of tusion, when the point sieks into it, and the two become as one metal, entirely impervious to the set on of the acids in inks. This can be done in making new peus, because the gold is more than three times as thick as it is after the pen is rolled to the project thinness of the finished state.

WHEN PLNS ARE REPOINTED

a solder must be need which will melt sconer than the gold of which the pen is made, otherwise the points will carl into a globular form. By this process the temper is taken out of the mb, the elasticity destroyed, and the peasubjected to the sure process of corresion. On these accounts, and knowing from lenger, ericace that repointed pension rarely give satisfaction, the subsub-ermust positively Refuce to Repoint Gold Pens.
